

Remembering Norman J. Furse

Revisor Emeritus, Norm Furse, passed away September 4, 2018.

Norm began his career in the Office of Revisor of Statutes during the summer of 1969 as a research assistant. He commenced full-time work as an Assistant Revisor of Statutes on June 1, 1970. During his career in the Office, Norm also served as First Assistant Revisor of Statutes, Revisor of Statutes, and Revisor Emeritus. Norm served as the seventh Revisor of Statutes from 1989 to 2006.

Norm received the Distinguished Government Service Award from the Kansas Bar Association at their 2007 annual meeting.

His knowledge and experience will not soon be forgotten. He was a dedicated public servant to both the Revisor's Office and the Kansas Legislative Branch.

To read more about Norm's life, please click here for his obituary.

